WEATHER PROBABILITIES, March 26, 1879. For the Middle States increasing claudiness, followed by rain, warmer southeast to south-west winds, and falling barometer.

CANAL ITEMS .- The Cumberland News of yesterday says:
"The Consolidation cost company will begin capal shipments to day by loading five boats. After to day they will load but twe, gradually increasing the number. "The Borden company may begin shipments this week, but the matter is not definitely settled. The dates of resumption for the other companies have not been fixed, but the indi cations are that nearly all will be shipping by April 1.

"Well informed canal men say that the work of filling the capal with water will not be completed for several days.

"The repairs to the Potemse wharf were completed yesterday."
The American Coal Co. will resume shipments by caual, from Cumberland, on Monday

It is not expected that the Alexandria Canal will be ready for busines before April 15th or May 1st.

PERSONAL -Mr. Thomas W. Jones, of Norfolk, has been appointed route mail agent on the Virginia Midland Railroad.

Mr. Edgar Thompson, clerk at Field's cigar store, while wrestling with a friend yesterday evening, sprained bis ankle so severely as to disable him.

Mr. Liewellyn Cook, son of the late Dr. Henry Cock, and Miss Luie Ashty, daughter of the former City Audity, A. S. Ashby were married in Washington this evening. A rum-ber of friends and relatives from this city attended the ceremony, which was porformed by Rev. D. F. Forrest, formerly of this

Rev. Douglass F. Forrest, formerly of this city, but now of Trinity Church, Washington, has received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from William and Mary College.

DEAD .- Mr. W. Douglass Stuart died at bis residence on King street last night, about eight o'clock of comsumption. Mr. Stuart was a graduate of the University of Virginia, where be took the degree of Master of Aris. He was a civil engineer by profession and was regarded as an adept in that business. At the beginning of the late war he was elected First Lieuten ant of Kemper's battery and served for some time in that capacity. He was afterwards ap pointed Captain of Engineers and served on the staff of General George E. Pickett, having charge of the engineering works on James River. Captain Smart was a widower and leaves two sous.

A meeting of the Society of Alumni ot the University of Virginia, of which he was a member, will be held at the office of Mayor Kemper, on Friday, to take action in regard to his death.

FISHTOWN .- The receipts of fresh fish contique very light, only about three or four hundred burches having been received since yesterday. Prices are about the same as at last report, 15 cents for mixed fish, and 30,35 conts for white perch and rock.

The restaurants, cook shops &s at Fishtown are beginning to resume their business appearance and ere many days things at the what will no doubt be in full blast. Fishermen are divided in their opinious as to the aucress or failure of the season.

Lucas & O'Neal sold to day for O. C. Whittlesey, trustee, a frame house on the northwest corner of Lee and Gibbon streets to C. W. Nowland for $455.

THE CITY DEBT .- The not of A-sambly to authorize the city to compromise its debt was at our astonishingly low prices; as cheap as ever informally discussed in Council last night, but silks have been sold, or can, or will be sold. to action was taken, as it was deemed better to await a proposition from the bondholders than to make one. The banks and bankers who represent a large proportion of the debt have been notified of this ides, and it is presumed that a meeting of ereditors will be held at an early date.

ATTEMPTED INCENDIARISM.—Some person naknown attempted to set fire to the old frame house on the north side of Queen street Dear Fairfax street last night about twelve o'clock, but some men, who were passing at the time, dis ocvered the flames and extinguished them be fore they obtained any headway. The house is a mere shell and is a dangerous nuisance, being open to the torch of any incendiary.

As in our busiest and most populous cities of the seaboard and interior. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is pre-eminently popular. Wherever civilation plants its foot on this continent, thither the great tonic soon finds its way. Nor is this surprising, for it is the medicine of all others best adapted to the wants of the Western emigrant, by he miner, or agriculturist. It is an incomparable remedy for the diseases to which he is most subject, and which are liable to be brought on by a change of climate, hardship, exposure, unaccustomed air and diet, and miasmatic atmosphere and water. Among these are disorders of the stomach and bowels, rheumatic ailments, and malarious fevers, for all of which Hest-tier's Bitters is a certain specific. A course of the Bitters before departing for the new field of labor, or on arriving, will have the effect of FOT ON OUR MOST DISTANT FRONTIERS, of labor, or on arriving, will have the effect of preventing the evils for which it is such a signal remedy.
